Since 2003, the Patriot Games, presented by USAA, is an exciting two-day competition between Cadets & Midshipmen. Points are earned through five events. The team with the most points will win this year's bragging rights and be presented with the Patriot Games trophy on the field during the Army-Navy Game.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

ROCKY RELAY

Friday, December 13TH | 8:30AM

Steps of the Philadelphia Museum of Art
26th & Benjamin Franklin Parkway

As the sun rises, so do the Cadets & Mids as they run a relay up the famous "Rocky Steps." Strength and speed will be tested and only the winners can say, "Yo, I did it!"

LEADERSHIP REACTION COURSE

Friday, December 13TH | 10:00AM

National Constitution Center Lawn
Arch St, between 5th & 6th

The Leadership Reaction Course will be revealed to the participants at the start of the challenge (leaders receive a mission, brainstorm, execute, and readjust to complete it under a time restraint). The course includes mental and physical obstacles that can only be overcome with leadership and teamwork.

PULL-UP CHALLENGE

Friday, December 13TH | 12:00PM

The Shops at Liberty Place
16th & Chestnut Sts

Amid the cheering and pep bands at the official Pep Rally, the Cadets & Mids have to concentrate and complete as many pull-ups as possible.

TUG-OF-WAR

Friday, December 13TH | 3:00PM

USS NJ Battleship | Camden, NJ

In the shadow of the USS NJ, the Cadets & Mids will battle it out with a Tug-of-War competition. Experience the Battleship New Jersey, America's most decorated Battleship and one of the area's most exciting Museums. Visit BattleshipNewJersey.com

GAME TICKET REQUIRED

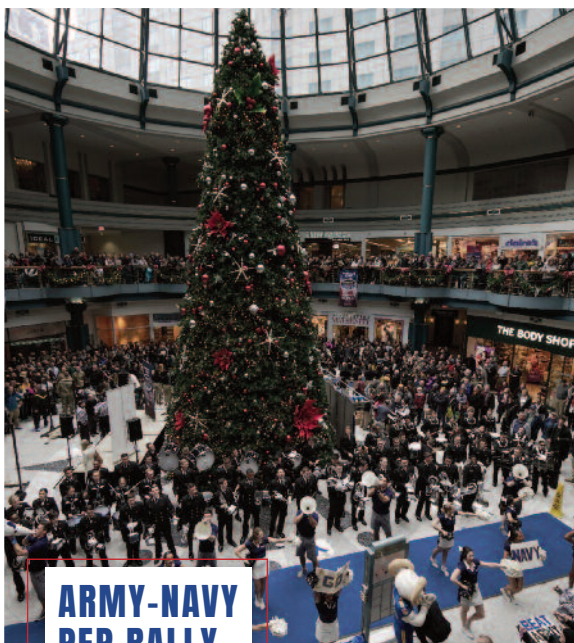

STADIUM OBSTACLE RELAY

Saturday, December 14TH | 1:15PM

Lincoln Financial Field

It all comes down to game day and the Stadium Obstacle Relay to determine this year's Patriot Games champion.

ARMY-NAVY PEP RALLY

Friday, December 13TH | 12:00PM

The Shops at Liberty Place
16th & Chestnut Sts

With only 24 hours until game time, the Pep bands, cheerleaders and fans get fired up at the official Pep Rally. If you are looking for fan gear, licensed Army-Navy Game merchandise will be sold during the event. Cheer on your team during the Patriot Games Pull-Up Challenge in the heart of the rotunda during the Pep Rally.
